

Fine Chocolates

Fine chocolates are arranged in square boxes so that caramel centered chocolates are placed in the center of an arrangement of dark chocolates. The caramels in each box of chocolates are arranged in a square formation in the center of each box. Around each center square arrangement of caramels is a border of dark chocolates. Using square tiles, create three possible boxes of fine chocolates.